Entertainment, Film and Sports: Tax

Pryor Cashman's Tax Group is skilled and experienced in the many issues affecting the entertainment, music, film and sports industries. For example, we:

- Provide counsel to foreign and U.S. performing artists, composers, actors and music publishers in connection with the federal, state and local tax issues affecting their businesses and intellectual property.
- Have substantial experience with various tax issues and incentives affecting the film industry and regularly employ such knowledge in structuring domestic and foreign film financing, structured financing and production transactions.
- Counsel U.S. and foreign athletes in connection with tax issues.
