Donald Lockhart Schuck is a partner and Co-Chair the Family Law Group at Pryor Cashman LLP. Since 1988, Don's practice has focused on resolving high net worth family matters. He has extensive experience litigating complex financial issues and high conflict custody disputes through trial and appeal. Don is also trained as a family mediator so effort is made to resolve these matters through negotiation and agreement. Prior to his work in family law, Don represented clients involved in corporate, employment and white collar criminal law litigation.

Don is a fellow in the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers and the International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. He has been named as one of the Best Lawyers in America and a New York Super Lawyer for his work in matrimonial and family law matters.

A graduate of Fordham University School of Law, Don was a member of the Fordham Law Review and the National Moot Court Team.
