Teresa Lee is a partner in the Intellectual Property Group and concentrates her practice in the areas of trademark and copyright law. Teresa represents and counsels domestic and foreign-based clients on the selection, clearance, use and registration, enforcement, licensing and litigation of trademarks and copyrights, and handles domain name disputes on a worldwide basis.

Teresa has successfully handled opposition and cancellation proceedings before the Trademark Trial And Appeal Board (TTAB) as well as managed numerous other opposition and cancellation proceedings to successful fruition in dozens of foreign jurisdictions. Additionally, Teresa has extensive experience in the preparation and negotiation of settlement and co-existence agreements.

Teresa's clients include high profile recording artists, songwriters, and celebrities, entertainment companies, models, fashion designers, sports teams, leagues and associations, banking and financial institutions, media executives, among a multitude of other clients in the consumer product and service industries.

Prior to joining the Firm in 2000, Teresa was an attorney at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) where she ruled on the registrability of trademarks, service marks, collective marks, membership marks and certification marks. While at the USPTO, Teresa specialized in the examination of applications pertaining to foods and beverages, alcohol, live and agricultural products, and all service mark applications. Teresa also appeared before the TTAB where she successfully argued cases brought on appeal. In addition to examination, Teresa served as a mentor and instructor for new examining attorneys and also gave lectures focusing on the examination of food and beverage applications.

Teresa is a 1993 graduate of Suffolk University Law School, where she won the American Jurisprudence Award in Advanced Legal Research from Lawyers Cooperative Publishing Company in 1993.
