Pryor Cashman Assists Biotechnology Investment Company in Formation and Investments

In June and July 2006, New Ventures I, LLC, a private equity fund specializing in investments in late stage biotechnology companies, was formed and made approximately $40MM in investments in various companies. Pryor Cashman was counsel for the formation of the fund and represented the fund in the making of its investments. The Pryor Cashman team was composed of partners Lawrence Rimmel, Craig Kinosian, Ralph Gerra and Steve Goodman, and associate Melissa Fleming.
