Counsel Andrea Gendel Co-Chairs Major Shopping Center Industry Event In NYC

The International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) celebrated the 400th meeting of ICSC's Next Generation program in New York City on April 1, 2009 with a series of roundtable discussions on pertinent real estate topics in the shopping center industry. The ICSC is the global trade association of the shopping center industry.

Pryor Cashman Counsel Andrea Gendel, in her capacity as co-chairwoman of The ICSC New York Next Generation committee, was instrumental in orchestrating this event, which brought together industry veterans and young up-and-coming professionals. New York Next Generation attendees and committee members enjoyed an evening of industry networking and toasted the many accomplishments of the group since its founding in June 2001.

Next Generation is an educational, networking and mentoring program for retail real estate professionals seeking to develop their careers and build relationships within the shopping center industry.
