

AttorneysManaging Partner

- Ronald H. Shechtman

Managing Partner Ronald Shechtman is Presenter at NYU Law School Annual Labor Conference

On June 3, 2010, Pryor Cashman Managing Partner Ronald Shechtman was one of the presenters at New York University Law School's 63rd Annual Conference on Labor. This year's program was "Resolving Labor and Employment Disputes: A Practical Guide."

Shechtman's presentation took place during the session on "Making Your Case before the NLRB General Counsel." He spoke about "Seeking Section 10(j) Relief."

Shechtman, who is the Chairman of Pryor Cashman's Labor and Employment Group and an NYU Law School graduate, also participated in last year's conference on "Labor and Employment Law Initiatives and Proposals in the Obama Administration." Shechtman moderated the session on "Card-Check Certification and Interest Arbitration: The Canadian Experience."