Pryor Cashman Client Alwayshungryny.com Nominated for Prestigious James Beard Media Award

With many clients of the firm having been nominated for and won Oscar, Emmy and Tony Awards, Pryor Cashman is pleased to announce that client Alwayshungryny.com, the restaurant search engine/food blog, has been nominated for a James Beard Media Award. In addition, Alwayshungryny.com will have one of its videos screened at the 2010 NYC Food Film Festival.

Partner Rich Frazer, Chair of Pryor Cashman's Restaurant, Food and Beverage Practice (and contributing writer to Alwayshungryny.com under his nom de plume, Guttergourmet), will be attending both the James Beard Awards on May 2, 2010 and the screenings in late June. He looks forward to meeting one of his role models, Andrew Zimmern, host of the Travel Channel's Bizarre Foods program (who is co-hosting the Beard Awards) and NYC Food Film Festival co-nominee George Motz, producer of the classic food film, Hamburger America.
