Super Lawyers Names Brad D. Rose Among Top Intellectual Property Attorneys in Business Services

Pryor Cashman is pleased to announce that Partner Brad D. Rose, Chairman of the firm's Intellectual Property Group, has been selected for inclusion on the Super Lawyers 2010 Listing of Top Attorneys In Business Services. The listing appears in the Corporate Counsel edition of the publication.

Rose, like all of the attorneys on the list, was selected through an extensive process based on peer nominations, blue ribbon panel review and independent research.

Rose was listed among the top Intellectual Property attorneys. He is experienced in the protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights in the nature of trademarks and copyrights. Rose also leads the firm's Branding, Licensing and Enforcement practice area. His client roster includes individuals and entities in the entertainment industry, including recording artists, actors and actresses, fashion designers, apparel and beauty companies, and trademark licensors/licensees involved in a multitude of different consumer product and service businesses.
