Pryor Cashman Represents Celebrated Jewelry Designer Neil Lane In Launch of Bridal Collection With Kay Jewelers

Pryor Cashman client and celebrated jewelry designer Neil Lane announced on July 19, 2010 the launch of Neil Lane Bridal with Kay Jewelers, a specialty retail jewelry store chain with over 1300 stores located in all 50 states. Neil Lane Bridal is a collection of 36 vintage-inspired engagement and wedding rings, all designed by Neil Lane.

As an avid collector of period jewels with a keen eye for style and elegance, Neil Lane has earned the respect and devotion of his diverse clientele and the greater public. Neil's work can be admired on film, television and music icons at red carpet events and celebrity weddings on some of the world's most influential women.

"I was influenced by over 20 years of design for some of Hollywood's legendary stars to create a collection with Kay Jewelers that is authentic, glamorous, and romantic," said Neil Lane.

Neil's love of period jewels and his commitment to the value of old world craftsmanship are reflected in the Neil Lane Bridal Collection for Kay Jewelers. The intricate designs feature period influences with historical references to art and architecture. Each ring is a celebration of old and new, inspired by Hollywood glamour.

Pryor Cashman Partners Brad D. Rose and Eli B. Nathanson, along with associate Muzamil Huq, represented Neil Lane in the transaction with Kay Jewelers.
