

Practice Areas

- Trusts and Estates
- Tax

Education

- J.D., University of Michigan Law School, 1961
- B.A., Cornell University, 1958

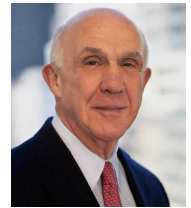

Bar Admissions

- New York (1962)
- U.S. Tax Court (1978)

Richard L. Kay

Partner
rkay@pryorcashman.com

410 Park Avenue | Direct Tel: 212-326-0844
New York, NY 10022 | Direct Fax: 212-798-6919

Richard L. Kay joined Pryor Cashman in 1987 as the partner in charge of the Trusts and Estates Department and continues in that capacity. He specializes in all aspects of financial and estate planning and trust and estate administration, as well as litigation relating to will contests, disputed accounting proceedings and similar matters. He has broad experience in representing a diverse client base including wealthy family groups, individuals and corporate executives and has considerable expertise representing estates and individuals with significant literary assets.

Professional Affiliations

- American Bar Association
- New York State Bar Association, Member, Trusts and Estates section

Other Activities

- Richard is active in United Jewish Appeal – Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York, Inc. where he is Chairman of the Legal and Tax Panel and involved in the planned giving area
- Richard participates in Cornell University activities where he is involved in the planned giving area and is a member of the Cornell University Council

News

- Partner Richard Kay Featured Speaker on Essentials of Estate Planning

Events

- Partner Richard Kay Featured Speaker on Essentials of Estate Planning