

Chambers USA Rates Pryor Cashman LLP Among Top U.S. Firms In Media & Entertainment Fields

Chambers USA has rated Pryor Cashman LLP as one of the top firms in the country in the field of Media & Entertainment, encompassing theater, film, television and music, noting that this “proficient firm pops up impressively within the film and music area.”

The Chambers guides list the top lawyers in 175 countries, providing independent rankings and editorial commentary. Chambers researchers speak with clients, find out which law firms they use and how they rate them for their legal ability and client service.

As stated in Chambers USA, Pryor Cashman is “heavily involved on the transaction side, acting for clients in relation to film and television; acquisitions; financing and production. It offers advice to independent film companies as well as representing investors, banks and other financial institutions. It also has the capability to work on international co-productions.” The publication notes that Pryor Cashman’s clients include “financing bodies, film and music companies and broadcasters.”